REDLIGHT CAFES HIT AS WAR ON CHIEF HEALEY BEGINS

Capt. Wm. P. O'Brien Takes Stand Against Healey—Exposes Conditions on South Side—Sen. Harding's Name Dragged In—Political Pull Shown Up.

Under oath before Judge Olson this morning Capt. W. P. O'Brien, late commander of the Cottage Grove av. station, testified that he had reported to Chief of Police Chas. C. Healey rotten conditions in the South Side black belt and that Healey had refused to take action.

Letters from O'Brien to Healey were read by Ass't State's Att'y Henry Berger, in which O'Brien pleaded for action against the Beaux Arts club and the Elite cafe, two "black-and-tah" joints on S. State street.

O'Brien's testimony was the most startling accusation that has as yet been made public by State's Att'y Hoyne against the Thompson-Lundin political machine. O'Brien was the first witness in Hoyne's applica-
